FLAVOURED GREEN TEA

When assessing green tea, Chinese tea masters look at the 'four characters' of the tea: colour, fragrance, taste and shape. The same basic principles are used by Newby's tea tasters. Following high standards for these basic principles, superior cups and blends of flavoured green teas are guaranteed.

OOLONG TEA

Originating in China's Fujian province, Chinese tea professionals refer to Oolong Tea as 'Blue-Green Tea' because of the intriguing colour of the leaf. The production of authentic oolongs dates back to the end of the Ming dynasty and is restricted to a few regions of China and Taiwan where artisan production techniques are still used.

Fujian Oolong

WHITE TEA

Experience the true taste of luxury. White tea is often a blend of young or minimally-processed tea leaves, primarily grown in China's Fujian province. Deliciously creamy, our Silver Needle tea has softly aromatic taste.
