AN EXCLUSIVE

COLLABORATION

Cape Grace is proud to present an exclusive collaboration with The Savoy Hotel in London - both part of the Fairmont Hotels family. From 7th August to end of August, Heirloom will host The Savoy's iconic Afternoon Tea. Three members of The Savoy's esteemed team, hailing from both London and South Africa, will travel to Cape Town to co-create the experience alongside the Cape Grace team.

This limited-time experience blends classic British elegance with a modern South African twist, offering a timeless Fairmont tradition in the heart of Cape Town.

GET TO KNOW THE ICONIC SAVOY

Britain's First Luxury Hotel

The Savoy was the first hotel in the UK to introduce revolutionary luxuries such as electric lighting, electric lifts (elevators), and en-suite bathrooms. At the time, these modern innovations set a new global benchmark for luxury hotels.

Historic Celebrity Guests

From Marilyn Monroe and Charlie Chaplin to Winston Churchill, Frank Sinatra, and The Beatles, The Savoy has always attracted the world's most iconic figures. They were drawn to its unrivaled service, exquisite dining, and reputation as a hub of privacy and sophistication.

Pioneering Afternoon Tea

The newly revamped Gallery is the heart of The Savoy's afternoon tea, featuring a stunning glass dome, live piano music, and world-class pastries and teas. It remains one of London's most celebrated afternoon tea experiences, blending tradition with modern indulgence.

Inspiring Gucci

Guccio Gucci, the founder of Gucci, once worked at The Savoy as a luggage porter. There, he observed the luxurious luggage and elegant attire of the guests, inspiring him to start his own leather goods company upon returning to Italy.
