

Housekeeping Supervisor Trainee INK Hotel Amsterdam – MGallery

Do you like it to work on an operational level, in order to create the most beautiful, cleanest, and comfy room of Amsterdam?

THE SCRIPT

As Housekeeping Trainee you are responsible for the quality checks of the rooms, and giving constructive feedback to your team members. At the start of your shift you will assign rooms and areas to the housekeepers in your team. You have an important role within the Housekeeping team, due to you are the last person in the room before the guest is arriving. For this Trainee position you need to have a good eye for detail, and you know exactly what is the best for the guest. Furthermore, you will learn how to make schedules, and how to instruct and train new employees. You like to work on an operational level, and you do not mind to work hard. You will work closely with our Housekeeping Manager, and you will assist in her management tasks.

A little bit more about us

INK Hotel Amsterdam is a luxury lifestyle hotel that owes its name to the rich history of the building in which, as former home of Dutch newspaper 'De Tijd', stories were conceived, written and brought to life in ink. This rich history comes to life in every single detail in our 149 rooms, 2 meeting rooms and restaurant & cocktail bar PRESSROOM. INK Hotel is part of the MGallery Hotel Collection, a premium brand of the Accor Group.

Still reading? Of course you would like to know how it is to work at INK Hotel Amsterdam. First and most important, you will join a very close team where initiative is encouraged all the time. We all know each other and together we run the hotel. You will get the opportunity to join several workgroups to extend your responsibilities. We have three workgroups: Be Balanced - to encourage a fit & healthy lifestyle among your colleagues, The ThInKables - to support colleagues in joy & sorrow and Planet 21 – if you feel responsible for the planet, sustainability and diversity in our company.
