

Le Royal Monceau – Raffles Paris is going all out for the festive season!

The most Parisian Palace is turning into a real funfair for the winter season. Big wheel, bumper cars, carousel: a world that will delight all the little ones and grown-ups! In the heart of the patio, the curious ones will be able to discover an authentic Christmas market for a sharing and sweet moment. The Royal Marché will offer a magical experience, to be enjoyed from November, 22nd 2019 to February 15th 2020 at Le Royal Monceau – Raffles Paris.

The Royal Marché terrace will be highlighted by an enchanting and authentic decoration: snowy chalets, sparkling Christmas tree, illuminated big wheel; a beautiful escape into this fairyland.

One of the chalets will lead to a prestigious Veuve Clicquot Champagne tasting. To go with the drinks, a selection of tapas will be offered such as a girolle mushrooms croque with hazelnuts, a salmon fillet heart with dill or a creamy Mont D'Or, to be shared with family or friends, for even more pleasure...

In the second chalet, delights will be waiting for you! Guests will savour apple juice and mulled wine as well as delicious crêpes, waffles, toffee apples and traditional cakes cooked “à la broche”. A little cocoon full of delight.

The door of the last chalet will unveil the Royal Monceau épicerie, where guests will be able to find the famous Christmas pastries of Pierre Hermé such as his Agapé Yule log, an exclusive creation from the Pastry Chef made for Le Royal Monceau, as well as his Mogador gingerbread cake. Special products and a selection of Veuve Clicquot Champagnes will also be available.

Lastly, a collection of iconic Royal Monceau objects could inspire the guests for their Christmas gifts.

This winter, Le Royal Monceau – Raffles Paris will delight eyes and taste buds, creating lasting memories for this wonderful festive season.
