

Emanuele Bombardier elected 2019 Best Sushi Chef of France!

The France Sushi Championship took place yesterday during the Japan Food Show. On Tuesday, April 2nd, twelve candidates came from every corner of France to participate in 5 common tests (préparatoire, végétale, signature, edomae, freestyle). Twelve figures of Japanese cuisine composed this special jury, chaired by Eric Ticana, organizer of this event. At the end of all events, three finalists competed for first place. Chef Emanuele Bombardier won the competition with great success.

The Chef started his career in Japanese cuisine more than 14 years ago, and has been working at Matsuhisa Paris for 3 years. For this contest, he prepared tirelessly every day for several weeks. A steady and demanding work that has paid off, Emanuele has won the title of best Sushi Chef de France 2019.

"The level was high this year, higher than last year. The Chefs worked a lot and were very creative. Emanuele is very strong, we can feel that he masters his subject, the vegetarian test was particularly bluffing" says Eric Ticana, president of the jury of the championship.

To taste the best sushi in France, Emanuele welcomes guests behind Omakase Bar every day at Matsuhisa Paris restaurant.
