Luxury Hotels

Royal Monceau Raffles Paris

One of the most luxurious five-star hotels in the city, the Royal Monceau Raffles Paris is located just steps away from the Champs-Élysées. It has three categories of rooms, seven suites, and three presidential suites, offering numerous complimentary facilities to guests, including macarons, unlimited Wi-Fi, and access to the gym and My Blend Spa by Clarins swimming pool, which at 23 metres is the longest in all Paris hotels.

Lo Reserve

Boasting an exceptional location, close to the most important landmarks of the city such as the Eiffel Tower, the Pantheon, the Concorde Obelisk, the Champs-Élysées and numerous parks, Lo Reserve makes being a tourist in Paris easy. The hotel's interior design is magnificent, and the service is excellent. We love the guest-only perks, such as access to its library and candlelit spa with its swimming pool.

Le Bristol

Le Bristol is situated in Faubourg Saint-Honoré, walking distance from the top fashion brands of one of the main shopping streets in Paris. You might not experience the luxury of Paris in the hotel's single rooms, but book a junior suite or higher categories, and you will certainly be awed.
