Tis the season for holiday decorations. And while most establishments will honor the festive season with a wreath or some lights, some luxury hotels go all out. In fact, you might want to book a room at some of these properties just for their elaborate displays. Here are seven of the most decked out hotels around the world.

Le Royal Monceau Raffles in Paris, France

Le Royal Monceau – Raffles Paris, another American Express Fine Hotels & Resorts property, has decked out the hotel into a nostalgic winter wonderland this season. From launching the winter terrace–The Royal Marché, to Pierre Herme's bûche de Noël, Agapé Yule Log, and a rotating festive Christmas tree imagined by Baptiste Pitou, the hotel's floral designer, the entire hotel is transformed with holiday décor. Plus, the magical holiday market is outfitted with a glistening Ferris wheel, twinkling lights, and three snow-covered chalets with exclusive dining experiences available.
