

HOLIDAYS, HOTELS

11 Hotels For Gingerbread Treats This Holiday

By Correspondent Linnea Covington

DECEMBER 24, 2019

Le Royal Monceau – Raffles Paris

As if you needed an excuse to head to Paris for the holidays, this Five-Star property has just the thing – a bûche de Noël (Christmas cake) designed by respected pastry chef Pierre Hermé.

Like the rooms of this fabulous hotel, this year's holiday cake proves both classic and modern. Dubbed the Agapé Yule Log, the dessert features a lemon-scented gingerbread log packed with seasonal fruits such as oranges, prunes, ginger, figs, Morello cherries and candied apricots.

The cherry on top is an ornate chocolate Ferris wheel that moves when you crank it to distribute nougat, macarons, caramels and bonbons. This elegant treat is practically all you need to keep the magic of the holidays alive or, at the very least, to enjoy a memorable and sweet-filled evening.