

Le Royal Monceau – Raffles Paris Launches A Fabulous Summer Season

EMMA HODGSON | 22-07-2023

Parisian hotspot, Le Royal Monceau, has launched a series of summer deals, to make a stay at the five star hotel all the more desirable.

The incredible property is home to Michelin Star restaurants, luxury spa facilities and some of the most sumptuous hotel suites in the city.

The first deal available to all travellers visiting the property over the summer months is a 20 percent discount across all rooms and suites on two night (or more) stays at the hotel booked until 31st August.

For the youngest guests visiting the property, the hotel is offering a welcome package of balloons, gourmet cookies, video games (depending on the child's age), board games on request and many other dedicated surprises.

Moreover, for the whole family to indulge Le Royal Monceau is offering 50 percent off on the second room, an extra bed for each child up to age 12, buffet breakfast at La Cuisine restaurant for the whole family, and access to Clarins & myBlend Spa.

For those staying in one of the luxury suites at the property, there is a fabulous shopping offer to take advantage of – a VIP day in the shopping centre with a Personal Shopper, including a personalised welcome in private lounges to choose the most beautiful summer outfits with an exceptional five percent discount on all purchases. As well as a gourmet break on Le Printemps du Goût terrace and a private olfactory experience in the Scent Room with an expert complete the experience.

raffles.fr